The course also explores risk assessment techniques and how to choose those best suited to your organisation's context, helping you protect value and strengthen business performance.

Study at your own pace with one year of access to study guides, interactive quizzes and PECB Skills. With an estimated study time of 14 hours, the programme fits around your professional commitments. Access the learning platform whenever you need it during your access period, with 24/7 PECB technical support. The price includes the certification exam, a second attempt if needed, and the certification fee.

COURSE & LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Develop a structured approach to managing uncertainty and supporting your organisation's objectives. This self-study course explores how to establish and improve a risk management framework based on ISO 31000, from securing leadership commitment to assessing risks, planning responses and reviewing results.

By the end of the course, you will be able to:

- Explain and apply ISO 31000 principles to embed risk management into organisational activities and decision-making.
- Establish a risk management framework adapted to your organisation's context, objectives and responsibilities.
- Define the scope and criteria for assessing risks, creating a consistent basis for analysis and prioritisation.
- Identify, analyse and evaluate risks, selecting assessment techniques suited to the situation.
- Develop appropriate risk treatment plans and communicate findings and recommendations to relevant stakeholders.
- Monitor and improve risk management practices through reporting, consultation and regular review.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

This training course is designed for:

- Managers or consultants involved in the implementation of a risk management programme within an organisation
- Project managers, consultants or expert advisers looking to master the implementation of a risk management framework and process
- Professionals responsible for risk management processes

The self-paced format is ideal for those with busy schedules or who prefer to study at their own pace.

PREREQUISITES

To follow the course, you should have a basic understanding of risk management principles, frameworks and processes.

To obtain the PECB Certified ISO 31000 Lead Risk Manager credential, you must pass the exam, demonstrate five years of professional experience—including two years in risk management—and at least 300 hours of risk management activities. You must also sign the PECB Code of Ethics.

These experience requirements apply to certification, rather than course admission. If you do not yet meet them, you may apply for another credential within the scheme, such as PECB Certified ISO 31000 Provisional Risk Manager, which requires no professional experience.

For further details, consult PECB's Certification Rules and Policies and Exam Rules and Policies.
